Dayle A. Savage, EdD, PCC Executive Leadership Coach

The world ... and your professional life ... are changing at a warp speed. Do you find yourself thinking about your next move, next adventure, or next big change? Do you find yourself stuck and unable to have the type of conversations that enrich and transform how others see you?

If you do, then you may be looking for a coach who is centered, engaged, and all-in for you. A coach who understands the challenges that executives and emerging leaders face. Dayle's personal mission is to help you realize the big possibilities you have for your life! Her gift is to be fully present, listen intently to your biggest dreams and frustrations, and serve your needs with a proven three-fold approach.

Clarity

Do you know what's next?

The first critical step is always to get clarity around your goals and intentions. Dayle uses exercise and assessments that enlighten and inspire you to move toward the changes you seek. The clarity established early on will strengthen your ability to be decisive, so you can focus in a clear direction.

Focus

Do you have what it takes?

It takes a lot of energy, stamina, curiosity and determination to get to the next level. Dayle's clients become keenly aware of the times they are propelled, sustained, or drained by what comes their way. They're better equipped to adapt ... to move forward, backward or sideways as necessary.

Ease

Would it be okay if success and change came easily?

Dayle will offer an outside perspective and together you'll design actions that support your values and easily assist you toward your goals. You'll focus on the values that give you meaning and purpose ... so you can honor your intentions and enjoy a life well-lived.
